Synopsis

Balloons Rainbow Mosho is the story of a young girl named Mosho who embarks on a journey of self-discovery and adventure. When Mosho's beloved grandmother passes away, she leaves behind a mysterious box filled with colorful balloons. Each balloon represents a different aspect of Mosho's personality, and as she releases them, she learns more about herself and her place in the world.

Along the way, Mosho meets a cast of quirky and unforgettable characters, including a wise old owl, a mischievous monkey, and a friendly giant. With their help, she learns to embrace her unique talents and overcome her fears.

Review

"Balloons Rainbow Mosho is a heartwarming and inspiring story that will resonate with readers of all ages. Mosho's journey of self-discovery is relatable and inspiring, and the cast of quirky characters adds a touch of whimsy and fun. The illustrations are beautiful and the storyline is captivating, making this book a must-read for anyone who loves a good adventure." - Our Book Library reviewer
