

Beyond Blurred Lines: Rape Culture In Popular Media

Rape culture is a pervasive problem in our society, and it's reflected in the media we consume. From movies and TV shows to music and advertising, rape culture sends harmful messages about sexual violence that can contribute to victim-blaming, slut-shaming, and other forms of gender-based violence.

This book aims to provide a comprehensive guide to understanding and challenging rape culture in popular media. We will explore the ways in which rape culture is perpetuated in the media, and we will offer strategies for resisting and challenging these harmful messages.
