Synopsis

In the unforgiving frontier of the Wild West, where justice is a fleeting whisper, a tale of revenge, redemption, and unyielding brotherhood unfolds in Buck Trammel's gripping novel, Bury The Hatchet.

When ruthless outlaws brutally murder their kin, brothers Jake and Ben Tanner embark on a perilous quest for vengeance. With unwavering determination, they hunt down the merciless gang that shattered their lives. Along the way, they forge an unbreakable bond with Cole Jackson, a seasoned trail scout whose rugged past mirrors their own.

As the trio ventures deeper into the untamed wilderness, they encounter treacherous terrain, relentless enemies, and the harsh realities of survival. Each perilous encounter tests the limits of their courage, their loyalty, and their very souls.

Amidst the relentless pursuit, Jake, Ben, and Cole discover that true justice may lie beyond mere retribution. As they navigate the treacherous moral landscape of the Old West, they must confront their own inner demons and the complexities of forgiveness.
