However, as they settle into their new home, the nuns quickly discover that life in Mopu is not as idyllic as they had imagined. The villagers are suspicious of the outsiders, and the nuns themselves struggle to adapt to the harsh conditions and the unfamiliar culture. As the weeks turn into months, tensions begin to rise within the convent, and the nuns find themselves wrestling with their own demons.

Sister Clodagh, in particular, begins to lose her grip on reality as she becomes obsessed with the beautiful young general who lives in the nearby palace. Her desire for him threatens to consume her, and she begins to neglect her duties as the leader of the convent.

Meanwhile, the other nuns also struggle with their own temptations. Sister Ruth, a young and inexperienced novice, falls in love with a local man, while Sister Philippa, the convent's pragmatic and efficient organizer, becomes increasingly disillusioned with her life in Mopu.

As the nuns' grip on their faith begins to weaken, the convent descends into chaos. The school for the local children is closed, and the nuns themselves become increasingly isolated from the villagers. In a desperate attempt to regain control, Sister Clodagh Free Downloads the nuns to leave Mopu.

However, their journey back to civilization is not without its dangers. The nuns are attacked by bandits, and Sister Clodagh is seriously injured. As she lies dying, she finally comes to terms with her own desires and the futility of her mission in Mopu.
