In the captivating novel Europa in Viaggio, Obinna Fidelis weaves a poignant tale of identity, culture, and the pursuit of dreams. The story follows the journey of Adanne, a young Nigerian woman who leaves her home country for a new life in Europe.

Adanne arrives in Italy with high hopes and aspirations. However, she soon discovers that life in a foreign land is not as easy as she had imagined. She faces challenges with language, culture, and racism. Despite these obstacles, Adanne is determined to succeed. She works hard to learn Italian and to adapt to her new surroundings.

As Adanne navigates the complexities of life in Europe, she begins to question her own identity. She wonders who she is and where she belongs. She feels torn between her Nigerian heritage and her new European lifestyle. Through her journey, Adanne learns the importance of embracing her own culture while also being open to new experiences.

Europa in Viaggio is a beautifully written and thought-provoking novel that explores the universal themes of identity, culture, and the pursuit of dreams. Obinna Fidelis's writing is lyrical and evocative, and she creates a vivid and immersive world for readers. Adanne's journey is both heartbreaking and inspiring, and it will resonate with anyone who has ever struggled with the complexities of identity and belonging.
