

Murder at Wrigley Field: The True Story of a Shocking Crime and Its Aftermath

On August 12, 1960, a young woman named Suzanne Degnan was brutally murdered in the women's restroom at Wrigley Field, the iconic home of the Chicago Cubs. The crime shocked the city and sent ripples of fear through the nation. In Murder at Wrigley Field, author David Lipsky tells the gripping true story of the murder and its aftermath.

Lipsky draws on extensive research, including interviews with witnesses, police officers, and family members, to piece together the events leading up to and following the murder. He paints a vivid picture of Wrigley Field in the 1960s, a time when the Cubs were struggling on the field and the city was grappling with social and economic change.
