

Titanic: The Homecoming - Tales From The Lapland

The Titanic disaster was one of the most tragic maritime disasters in history. Over 1,500 people lost their lives when the ship sank in the North Atlantic Ocean on April 15, 1912. In the aftermath of the disaster, many of the survivors were brought to the Lapland, a Finnish ship that was chartered by the White Star Line to repatriate the bodies of the victims.

This book tells the stories of some of those survivors, and the challenges they faced in the aftermath of the disaster. Some of the survivors lost loved ones in the sinking, while others were left with physical and emotional scars.
